

ENJOY ENGLISH

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 8

Enjoy English is a publication of the China Teaching Web and may be used and distributed freely in the ESL classroom as long as it is not modified in any way. For more free issues and a user guide, please visit www.TeachAbroadChina.com/Enjoy

ENJOY ENGLISH STORY OF THE WEEK— THE HOTSHOT

Casey felt like a hotshot as he sat behind the wheel of his brother's shiny Corvette. He couldn't believe that his brother had allowed him to take the car for a spin. After all, the brand new vehicle was his brother's pride and joy and Casey had never dreamed that he would be allowed to touch it, much less drive it. Casey was so caught up in his excitement that he momentarily took his eyes off the road. Just then, the car in front of him came to a sudden halt at the light and by the time that Casey put his foot on the brake, it was too late. The Corvette rear-ended the car and the airbags inflated with a bang. No one was hurt but the front of the Corvette had sustained damage...

What do you think?

1. What is the first thing that Casey should do?
2. Should Casey try to get the car fixed without his brother knowing?
3. How do you think Casey's brother would react to the accident?
4. Is it a good idea to lend our belongings to friends or family?

The Apostle Paul wrote:

"And be ye kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you"

Learn the Words

Hotshot - A person who is (or thinks he is) very good at doing something.

Take a spin - To use a vehicle just for the fun of riding around.

Pride and joy - Something that you love using and also love showing off to other people.

Caught up - To have all your attention and imagination focused on one thing.

Halt - When you stop doing something or something stops happening.

Inflated - When something fills up with air or gas and becomes larger.

ENGLISH WORD OF THE WEEK

Immune

Meaning:

Not affected or influenced by something.

For Example:

Just because your business is strong now does not mean that it is immune to the global economic recession. It is good to save some money just in case.

ENGLISH EXPRESSION OF THE WEEK

To hit the nail on the head.

Meaning:

When someone is exactly right about something that they say.

For Example:

You hit the nail right on the head when you said that Tom needs to grow up.

ENGLISH TIDBITS OF THE WEEK

Did You Know?

Infants spend more time dreaming than adults do.

The boiling point of human saliva is three times that of regular water.

Riddle of the Week

LOL!

What did the ocean say to the beach?

You can find the answer to this riddle in the next edition of Enjoy English.

The answer from last week's edition of Enjoy English: An Echo

Do you have a story to share with us?

Send your original story of no more than 130 words to stories@teachabroadchina.com

Please include your name and country

Are you a teacher in China?

Join our free support for teachers!

TeachAbroadChina.com/TACA

Copyright © 2009
TeachAbroadChina.com